

Rule No. 23 Reconsideration

After the decision on any question, any member who voted with the prevailing side, or who was absent during the voting on the question, may move a reconsideration of any action at the same or the next succeeding meeting. A motion to consider shall require the same number of votes as is required to adopt an ordinance or resolution. After a motion for reconsideration has been acted on, no other motion for a reconsideration thereof shall be made without unanimous consent.
