

Sec. 44-1. - Ordinances not subject to the referendum.

The following shall not be subject to the referendum, but shall go into effect at the time indicated therein:

(a)

Any annual appropriation ordinance.

(b)

In all cases where council is required to pass more than one ordinance or other measure to complete the legislation necessary to make and pay for any public improvement, the referendum shall apply only to the first ordinance or measure required to be passed.

(c)

Ordinances or resolutions providing for the approval or disapproval of appointments or removals by the mayor, and appointments or removals made by council.

(d)

Action by the council on the approval of official bonds.

(e)

Ordinances or resolutions providing for the submission of any proposal to a vote of the electors.
